Dear Sir

by Mr. Pettens desire I write to beg of you to stop the printing of the remainder of the pamphlets, until you hear from Mr. Pettens as there are a great many mistakes, which must be rectified before any more are printed, Mr. Pettens has not yet been able to pass those he brought with him through the Customs house, they want £ 11. 3 for duty. Therefore Mr. Ditmars has written a petition or declaration and it will be 3 or 4 days before it is settled.

During that time he will write and tell you of the different corrections that must be made before any more are printed. he would ~~have~~ written himself to you to day but was obliged to go out on business of importance

I am Sir

Your truly and Obedt Servant

Dear Sir,

Mr. Dickens has desired me to write to you as he is very much engaged, to ask you, to have the kindness to get him one

They were not finished when I was in Paris but he told me it would be ready at the last of October.
Therefore if you will have the kindness to get one and send it by the Courier of Tuesday ^{next} Mr. Dickens will feel greatly obliged, he is teaching the

It is for her, ^{he} wants it, in case it should not yet be published that may be finished, and if you cannot possibly send it by the Courier on Tuesday, pray be so kind as to send it on Thursday Knowing what a Gallant Gentleman you are to all Ladies, I trust you will forgive the liberty I take in troubling you with this commission, I must also ask you to have the kindness to give the enclosed to my Eugenia, as soon as possible, I hope you are enjoying good health, I am happy to say
