

Monday

my dear Mr. Palmer

In a country of diamonds again!

Will it be in your power, though avowedly in your resolve, to pass by every diamond you will find on that rich shore of Ithaulin?

I hope to be able to tread that delicious shore next Saturday and to pass under the unrivalled command of Mr. Palmer, whether on land or on water, as a guide or as a prince, at Ventnor or in the whole orb of the isle of Wight.

Perhaps it will be a trite news for you. But however, I tell it you.

Madame Murray has been just admitted into the order of the Diaconesses (Catholic), - and as such has a right to be called Countess, it being one of the privileges of the

He was a General
 not only remained with the Russians
 but actually
 by proceeding
 to attack
 the very
 place where his mother
 was living (Pulawy)
 and to send some nonballs
 against it
 From that moment
 the Princess said that she had no
 son.

is dead. He was a General during the war of 1812, he remained with the Russians but actually by proceeding to attack the very place where his mother was living (Pulawy) and to send some nonballs
 against it From that moment the Princess said that she had no
 son.

among the nobility.
 I understand that Lady Georgiana Fullerton, through her father Lord Granville, has helped Miss Murray to get the above American.

Lady Georgiana has written another novel.

The Son of our good Princess de Wurtemberg in the Russian army but a very bad son.

We have here one of the youngest brothers of Count Zamoycki, not so tall like him but even bit like him and tall too. He is quite a beauty and certainly not ~~above~~ much above twenty. When he grasped my hand and spoke to me, I thought that I had Count Ladwas before me.

I hope that Meue Rosa has her Allison's piano as of yore and charms the pretty villa as formerly Is Widd in Thaukling too. My love to him. — ever most truly yours
 L. Med