

Monday 2 March 1836,

Ladies,

I wish you could see me now - how ~~to~~ ^{alas} ~~unfortunately~~ - unrealizable wish! to bear testimony to my power of enduring any accumulation of matter under which - poor slave I must ~~work~~ labour. But never mind - Dr Carver pleases me

By the bye - let me relate to you a ^{circumstance} ~~circumstance~~ which made laugh even my Rev^d. Doct^r Carver - ^{Keep} you recollect the American of Tragedian - well. ^{Some time ago} he wrote a letter to Lord S. Stuart, requesting him to attend a meeting of whigs (the ^{Yankee} American) was ~~the~~ ^{an} ~~organizer~~ ^{relating} ~~confr.~~ to express sympathy London feels towards New York much in respect of the ~~emigration~~ ^{emigration} of the latter ~~recalling~~ ^{down} - Lord S. desired me to answer ^{him} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ⁱⁿ ~~third~~ ⁱⁿ ~~person~~ - I did saying that Lord S. will be happy to attend provided it does not ^{take} place within these ~~the~~ fortnight during which Lord L. was so ^{expressly} extremely busy —

Tristram's meeting has not ^{yet} taken place ~~yet~~ now — but is originating by the same person

Mr George gathered his forces again and wrote ~~me~~ in a letter to the same purpose to Dr. Lardner ^{now} — Dr. Lardner answers ^{him} with in my hand writing — in the third person ^{too} that he will attend — how it will puzzle Mr. George when he comes to compare two

^{the same} writings, coming from two quite different quarters, is it not a puzzle for him?

I got. I have in my possession two books, which were lent to me by Miss Stoker. I am determined to read them through - but now not being able to understand them I do not see the longer keeping of them - I apprise her by this letter that in ~~no~~ ^{any} case. my gallant & eloquent Gregory is ready to carry them back if desired.

I met ^{last} the other ^{night} the ^{that is} ~~the~~ ^{last} in Logans road and more

I have many complaints to at home without I use say - and using the phrase which have found at Lardner's - when a slave expresses in a letter his ^{is an English} feelings & sentiments - he says they are finer in my words but they are not finished in my heart have many articles omitted
