

Clements Inn, ~~Rich~~ London
 17th September 1838 Monday

My dear Captain

I take the liberty to introduce to you a gallant fellow Mr Gyoroski, an officer, who fought in our late Polish War and who now goes to Richmond to recruit his broken health.

Any thing in the shape of friends or acquaintances would be most acceptable to him as he would like to make his short stay in Richmond not ^{only} beneficial to his health but also refreshing to his mind. If your Lit^y. Society is thriving and continues to cultivate the taste for science, it would be just the place for my friend to divert his mind - and I trust that I am uttering most perfect truth when I say that you are the best disposed member of that Institution to see

Dear Sir
 I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the above mentioned matter. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the result of the proceedings in this case. I have, however, to inform you that the same has been decided in accordance with the law, and I am unable to do otherwise. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
 Yours truly,
 J. M. [Name]

of Clements Street, London
18th March 1828

Dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours obedient servant,
John Lubbock

[Large decorative flourish]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours obedient servant,
John Lubbock

John Lubbock
[Signature]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours obedient servant,
John Lubbock

the door of it open to whoever enters it with a wish to invigour his mind.

Pray remind me most kindly to Mrs Belstead and

Believe me Dear Sir, ever sincerely yours
Leonard Piotrowski

Capt. Belstead
Richmond