

7. Clements Inn, London
 29th November 1838
 Thursday

My dear Sir

As I promised to write to you in case I should be detained in town, I beg to inform you now, that the Gentleman with whom I have had an interview to-day (as I told you), has expressed a wish to see me & enter upon my duty from this day; under these circumstances can you oblige me by giving me a ^{kind} call here, when you are in town on Saturday next?

Yours truly
 Leonard Niedzwiecki

Boyle Esq
 Gonsley Hall
 Wandsworth

London
22nd November 1888
Dear Sir

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the Government has decided to purchase the land in question for the purpose of the proposed railway. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours faithfully,
John Lubbock

John Lubbock
Secretary

John Lubbock
Secretary