

Dr Gardner presents his compliments to Messrs Douglas & Scrivener, enclosed, by Mr Giles' request, the notes of the evidence which he is prepared to give on the part of the South Midland Railway Company in opposition to the Midland Counties.
 Dr L. requests that Messrs D. & S will have the goodness to return the enclosed MS when it has been briefed for counsel.

Dr L. has generally found that, in subjects to which his evidence is directed, a previous personal conference with counsel has been very useful and, indeed, necessary - to enable counsel to comprehend the subjects of his testimony

Dr. Gardner presents his compliments to Messrs Douglas & Robinson, enclosed, by Mr Giles report, the notes of the evidence which he is prepared to give on the part of the Boston and Albany Railway Company in opposition to the petition granted.
 Dr. Gardner states that Messrs D & R will have the goodness to attend the evidence which is to be taken before the committee.
 Dr. Gardner generally found that the subject to which his evidence is directed a previous personal experience with former has been very useful and in every respect - to enable Gardner to comprehend the subject of his testimony.
