

36 Nutford place, Bryanston Square
2nd December 1837

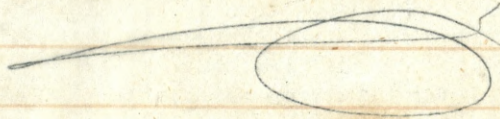

668

Dear Sir,

Perhaps you will be kind enough to give the subjoined pamphlet to Mr. Foublangue and to induce him to peruse it. The case is well known to Mr. Foublangue; it was conducted by the late Mr. Foublangue (the father) - and has a chance to be brought forward again, and the pamphlet is to serve as a book of reference. - The copy of it was sent to Dr. Gardner's with a request to have it sent to Mr. Foublangue.

I remain, Dear Sir,

Yours truly
Leonard Niedzwiecki

John Forster, Esq
Lincoln's Inn Field

A receipt of the sum of £1000 being the amount of the sum of £1000 which was paid to the said
 on the 1st day of 1812

John Carter
 Secretary to the Trustees of the British Museum