

1122
25 Rue Stambourg ou Roule
Tuesday, April 1839.

My dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that by reference to my books I have found that two of your promissory notes have failed to stand good for the day appointed and be in some way dishonoured now - one if you recollect that famous one which promised us a splendid dinner with all nightly entertainments, now long ago by Sansonnet - and of which we were admitted the parties - namely my self and Zaleski; and the other the recent one by which you engaged to stand a dinner to day to myself and James Kirrievic. Some by failing in your engagements you are the means of injuring the parties involved in the transaction - and above all the public at large and most particularly the cooks who were to dress the said splendid dinners, we are induced to denounce your name to all the fraternity of "the free and easy" but and brand your conduct as highly irregular and disrespectful towards the goddess of good living - unless you consent to give securities in future whenever you shall be tempted to throw out promises for dinners which are never to come.

M<sup>r</sup> Jeffs. I have the honor to be Sir Hotel du Nord. Rue Jacob. Yours Edward Appetite Dinnerer.

23
London
1830

My dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the business of the Bank of England, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
John Bull

1830

Rue Saubourg ou Boule no 25

1128

Paris 22nd April 1839

Monday

My dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th Inst which came to hand on Saturday last.

As you perceive, between Saturday & this day Sunday has intervened - a day ~~intending~~ of rest ~~or even~~, <sup>which</sup> the Frenchman is little prone to the exercise of any religious obligations. At least M. Garnier told me that <sup>he</sup> did not expect to have the two books which you want against Monday so early as to be in time for delivering them to Pellegrini today - He desired me therefore to call on him this evening. I shall do so and shall forward those books to you by the Messagerie Royale - I do not know how, but Garnier tells me that Messagerie Lafitte would not undertake the said parcel which we are going to send you.

I ~~wrote~~ <sup>send</sup> this letter by our usual cheap channel but ~~should~~ and it will be gone before I know that I shall <sup>get</sup> the books for you. But should any thing happen unforeseen, then I shall address you a letter by post to-morrow. Still I have no doubt that Garnier will be able to procure the said books for you today.

Garnier has not asked me for money. Therefore you will be indebted to him

Of course I called with your letter on Garnier after the receipt of your letter - that is - on Saturday, - but he said still (since it was in the afternoon) that it was already too late to take any immediate steps; he further said, that on Sunday he could do nothing - it being a holiday - hence the delay if there be any

Amherstburg Oct 18 1837
Dear Sir

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th inst which came to hand yesterday last.
As you perceive a certain quantity of has intervened - a day or two no later than to the service of my religious obligations.
At least Mr. Garrison tells me that he is not going to leave the two books which you want of mine (under to early as to be in time for delivering them to Plymouth - today. He desires my thanks to all on him this morning. I shall be glad and thank you for the books which you have sent me. I shall I do not know how, but Garrison tells me that Missouri's people would not read them. He with great interest in our going to my I shall be glad to hear of our moral progress and it will be good to hear of your the same thing which you have written. I shall and you have a letter of Garrison's to answer. This I have no doubt that Garrison will write to we are the only books for you to get.
Garrison has not yet written me for many days.
I shall be glad to hear of your of course I shall write you later on Garrison I beg to say that the time is not in the afternoon that it was already too to take any more time. I shall be glad to see you at any time.

CSM

I delivered your letter to Mad<sup>me</sup> Roussel. in l<sup>e</sup> Hotel du Nord.

I ~~can~~ do not expect to be so soon in London - but will take care to forward you your books if I can -

I thought proper to ~~include~~ <sup>include</sup> in one parcel and the books which Janusiewicz was going to forward to you through Corman & I have

I have the goodness to take care that the number of Mlada Polska marked Hozman be delivered to Mr. Hozman at Wilczeski's 117 Jermyne Street. When you are sending that way, you may send it at the same time. Of course I do not wish that Capt. Daussemer should undertake to do it.

The other two copies ~~of~~ of the same Mlada Polska you may leave with Col.
Seymour - and ~~with~~ you will request him to forward one to M. Daszewicz, (Spencer Street, Hull) and the other to M. Wiercinski (Gudersfeld) under a frank.

Of course you may use me freely while
I am staying here.

I am staying here
Send letters through Col. Seymour my compl<sup>ts</sup> to Capt<sup>n</sup> Daussemer. Can he spare no time to write to me?
M. Jeffs. yours truly 15 Durlingham Arched London. V. Leveque le jeune homme de Paul & Co Koch not yet out - and probably Rue Harbours out Route N° 25 will not be before Monday next 1133 Paris 26th April 1839

Friday

My dear Sir,

Our endeavours in supplying you with the books which you expressed a wish to have in your last and which we <sup>partly</sup> promised to forward to you have proved unavailing. Garnier has found an edition in 12 in Vol. of Lepeintre, but not containing the preface of Barriere - according therefore to the instructions given me by you I declined taking it.

You will readily understand that not having effected your commission it was a pure waste of money to write a letter to you informing you of our unsuccessful proceedings for which you would naturally be charged, but not having received the book which would bear that cost, it would be emptying your pocket in pure waste.

If you next give me an order tell me always for what purpose you want any particular thing, for I must inform you that the people here are rather chagrinist and not to be depended on as to time - so that I may use my own discretion in sending you or not sending your commission, in the event of its being fulfilled later than you might have expected. For instance now I am not sure, if I were to find the book of the description you want, whether I would be justified in sending it now not having positive orders to that effect.

If you wish to enter into a correspondence with any of the booksetting houses here I am willing and able to do it for you - as I know a house which would accept it very readily and would trust you with books to a large amount if necessary.

You were amnably bewildered in Paris, for otherwise I would have received through Laleski my black waists at which you eagerly undertook to write for.

Try to learn whether Madgen had any correspondents here, for I want a copybook for my manifold writer. But pray do it yourself. I will expect to hear from you

M. W. Jeffs.

Very truly yours
Leonard Reed.

Le jour de la semaine sainte, le 14 Mars 1854 à Paris, le 14 Mars 1854 Monsieur le Ministre J'ai l'honneur de vous adresser ci-joint un exemplaire de l'ouvrage que vous m'avez honoré de me demander.

Je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Ministre, l'assurance de ma haute estime et de mon profond respect.

Je suis, Monsieur le Ministre, avec
la plus haute considération,
votre dévoué serviteur,
L. J. B.

Je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Ministre,
l'assurance de ma haute estime et de
mon profond respect.

Je suis, Monsieur le Ministre, avec
la plus haute considération,
votre dévoué serviteur,
L. J. B.

Je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Ministre,
l'assurance de ma haute estime et de
mon profond respect.

The first thing I did was to go to the office and see what was going on.
 I found everything in a state of confusion. The books were all mixed up and the papers were scattered all over the place.
 I spent the day trying to get things in order. I had to go to the bank and see about the money. I had to go to the post office and see about the mail. I had to go to the court and see about the law. I had to go to the school and see about the children. I had to go to the church and see about the people. I had to go to the hospital and see about the sick. I had to go to the prison and see about the criminals. I had to go to the army and see about the soldiers. I had to go to the navy and see about the sailors. I had to go to the air force and see about the pilots. I had to go to the space program and see about the astronauts. I had to go to the moon and see about the landing. I had to go to the planets and see about the life. I had to go to the stars and see about the universe. I had to go to the galaxies and see about the cosmos. I had to go to the universe and see about the everything.

25. r. fg. du Boule, Paris,

1928

10th January 1840. Friday

My dear Jeffs

I have received yours of the 2nd Inst. and agree entirely with you in what you say about the theatricals.

Our starting point is, as it should be, that you shall make no use of ~~any~~ <sup>any</sup> Ms. ~~of any piece~~ supplied (unless the terms are come to and the piece accepted; and on our part, that we shall furnish no other <sup>party</sup> with the ms. of it except yourself.

The next capital point is the capital - Before sending you the Ms. copy, you shall have first the subject of the piece. It involves a charge of course; but if it will stop there, if the piece be not acceptable. - Next the next charge would be for copying, which of course would not be so great - Sending it <sup>to you</sup> &c. These are the expenses which must be incurred.

An understanding might be come to with the authors as to the amount of remuneration to be given to them, - of course if the piece prove acceptable and successful - but it might be based upon the ~~proceeds~~ receipts accruing from successive representations and payable as you know by the theatres. It shall be your business to look about it and perhaps to allow your name to be used as the father of the piece adapted for the English Stage. The translator is "cobbler" (as you call him very properly)

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the train was the cold air. It was a relief after the heat of the city. I had heard that the weather was good, but I didn't realize it would be so cold. I wrapped myself in my coat and walked towards the station. The people were all looking at me with curiosity. I felt like an outsider. I had never been here before. I was a stranger in a strange land. I had to find my way to the hotel. I asked a policeman for directions. He pointed me in the right direction. I walked for a while and found the hotel. It was a nice place.
 I had a room. I was tired. I went to bed. I fell asleep. I woke up in the morning. I had a headache.
 I went to the doctor. He gave me some medicine. I felt better. I went to work. I was happy. I had found a new home. I was no longer a stranger. I was a resident. I was home.

must have a share in the proceeds arising from this ~~source~~ source - I should think in this proportion, the original author twenty five per cent, the translator twenty five per cent, yourself thirty per cent, and we ourselves here twenty, or what you may agree to, which of course would be much better.

You need not be terrified as to the amount of pieces per year. Paris boasts of no more theatres than fourteen fourteen (including and the Italian Opera), give ten new pieces per year to each, and you shall have one hundred and forty pieces - to produce which Decussly would require at least a host of seventy dramatic writers, which would be too strong a muster. According to your calculation it would appear that every two days there is a new piece represented at each of the theatres. Look at the play bills every day and (and you have the Journal des Debats) and you will be surprised to find that the new pieces bear a very small proportion to the old ones. If you take into account next the talent of the writers, the proportion will appear immeasurably small. So that there was nothing visionary in the suggestion to receive the good pieces as well as the bad. - Mme. Sans, Mme. Ancelet, Victor Hugo, Fred. Soultis are within our reach - and you cannot expect from them two thousand pieces per year

You know then now, what we want and how we stand - give us a decisive answer and we shall ~~consequently~~ go about the business.

As to that portion of your letter in which you tell me that you received no money for me I think there must be a mistake on some part or other. In a letter which I have before me, dated the 29th November last Mr. Redwell (from the Polish Society) informs me "that he has paid to my friend Mr. Jeffs the sum of six shillings." - ~~but~~ I regret only that the others are not so punctual with me as he is. I have left a general order in London that every one who owes me something should pay it to you for my account.

Meanwhile I feel very much obliged to you for your kindness in allowing me to have the 'Medals' at ~~the~~ your own price.

Ponder over the matter contained in my last and <sup>give</sup> ~~give~~ <sup>you</sup> the felicity of beholding your future one. I should not wonder if the accomplished and beautiful M<sup>lle</sup> Aseline be the one.

Remind me to the "Cave of Gaudin" and pray give my compliments to Mr. Field.

Yours very truly
Edward Reed

M. Jeffs.
15 Burlington arcade
Piccadilly London

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above mentioned matter. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours obedient servant,
 J. H. [Signature]

No. 4
 Pa.

25. r. du faubourg de Roule, Paris.
24th January 1840
Friday-

My dear Bill,

The explanation given by you at the end of your letter of the 18th Inst. is more than a mystification to me. Mr. Rodwell in the words of Buckstone is "a man of regular habits" and incapable of putting down for some what he has not done. I can as much say of yourself. How it comes then to pass that irregularity <sup>has</sup> crept into the transactions of one of you; for I got ~~two~~ letters from both of you in which the statement of the one is neutralised by that of the other. I am writing to Mr. Rodwell as well. I hope that he will clear and right the matter, as ~~not~~ presumably he is the ~~chief~~ offender. as to the other topic of your letter you shall hear from <sup>me</sup> at no distant period when we shall come to close terms.

ever truly your Leopold Ned

Mr. Jeffs,
15 Burlington Arcade
Piccadilly, London.

Paris, 25 r. fg. Dubaule 14th February 1840
Friday.

My dear Bill,

Those beautiful leeches which you admired so much when you last saw James & Henry, those two leeches have come to town and have sucked the blood of his pocket mercilessly. As is usual in such cases go to the theatre - give a supper - go to the concerts, give a dinner - and pray for all. James & Henry at last dislikes that mode of life and pants for a wife. Everybody should marry when the crowned heads give such good examples. Yourself and James & Henry, you should marry. There are plenty of good wives for both of you. Why should you spend money and your forces without profit. Is it not some such wench that has detained you now and scattered to winds your excellent project of coming to Paris. Pray do me the favour to moralize James & Henry for his abandoned life, ~~and~~ maybe by correcting each other you will both become better, for I see that you are both a match.

Your letter of the 10th J. in hand
Yours very truly

M. W. Jeffs.

15 Burlington Arcade London

Edward Reed

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends here. I have not much time to write at present. I must close for this time. Write soon.
 Your affectionate son,
 John Smith

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter of the 10th and was
 glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and
 hope these few lines will find you all the same. I have not much news to write at
 present. I am still in the same place and
 doing the same work. I have not seen
 any of the old friends here. I have not much time to write at present. I
 must close for this time. Write soon.
 Your affectionate son,
 John Smith

25. r. fg, su Rouly, Paris
28th February 1870
Friday

My dear William

~~Mr~~ Mr Stannum will call on you to pay him eight shillings on my part. Please to do the same ~~amount~~ and to charge me for as much.

Why did you not come down to see the maskerade now?

A mother natural but very unmatutally had given her child begotten by her to be eaten up by pigs. Poor soul for it lead to the ~~entire~~ destruction of the animal, ~~from~~ a part of lungs was extracted which could sustain itself on the surface of the water. This led to the conviction of the naturally unmatutal mother for it proves that the child was alive when born.

ever truly yours
M<sup>r</sup> W. Jeffs
15, Southey Street
Leonard Reed

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is written in cursive and covers most of the page.]

[A large, dark blue ink scribble or signature is located at the bottom center of the page.]

25 rue de la Sabourg du Rouc

1493

27th March 1849 Friday

My dear Will.

Last night I had the high pleasure of beholding with my own eyes the wretched ~~men~~ that have bewitched you at James Kier's magic. Dear, dear creatures! I must call them dear, because they cost James Kier's ~~not~~ not a one sou. ~~And~~ And still they are otherwise dear to him. So that in the language of Sheridan Knowles you would say to ye 'Doubly Dear! ye, doubly barrelled guns.

Pray how far have you advanced with the Venus Pair. As Miss Margaret Field already in possession <sup>of it</sup> I am very glad that you have written to her. She is a dear creature.

You will oblige me by letting Mr Gnoraski have the Legions of Enoch in exchange for his insurrection, and placing ~~at~~ <sup>debiting</sup> me for four shillings the charge of transporting it.

Pray remind me kindly to glaze Bunsen's, to your growing Brothers who will soon enrol themselves among the members of the Society for the suppression of vice, which their elder brother has depressed so much and to Mr. Field the imperturbable

Yours very truly

Leonard Nied

M. W. Jeffs
15 Burlington Arcade
London

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you.

I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news
to write at present.
The weather here is
very pleasant now.
I have been thinking
of writing to you for
some time but have been so busy that I could not find time.
I hope you are all
well and happy.
I have not much news
to write at present.
The weather here is
very pleasant now.
I have been thinking
of writing to you for
some time but have been so busy that I
could not find time.
I hope you are all
well and happy.
I have not much news
to write at present.
The weather here is
very pleasant now.
I have been thinking
of writing to you for
some time but have been so busy that I
could not find time.
I hope you are all
well and happy.

Paris. 24 October 1840

My dear Sir,

I write this just to inform you that I gave M. Alizaraski an order on you to pay him one franc Sterling.

The portraits of Lord Sush may be confided to Mr. Field, and may be selling by him at five shilling trade price for my <sup>account</sup>. All in haste yours

Leonard Sued

Mr. W. Jeffs
15 Burlington Arcade
London

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you and
 to hear that you were all well. I am well
 at present and hope
 these few lines will
 find you all the same.
 I have not much news
 to write at present.
 I am your affectionate son
 John Smith

Dear Mother
 I received your kind letter
 of the 10th and was glad
 to hear from you and
 to hear that you were
 all well. I am well
 at present and hope
 these few lines will
 find you all the same.
 I have not much news
 to write at present.
 I am your affectionate
 son
 John Smith

Paris, 25 rue du faubourg du Louvre 12th November 1840

My dear Sir

I have written a letter to Messrs W. Leaf Crofts No 4 Frederick place, Old Jewry, <sup>in the</sup> which you will do me great favour to call on these Gentlemen when you are in your way to the city, and communicate to use what they will say in <sup>answer</sup> ~~reply~~ to it.

You must know that on the 27 September 1836 ~~as~~ I entrusted to those Gentlemen a letter to my brother, containing nine pounds Sterling which my brother was to receive together with my letter. - My Brother never answered me and four full years have elapsed and I have ~~no~~ <sup>a</sup> communication from home. - of course the Correspondent of Messrs Leaf, Crofts & Co at Koenigsberg, must have acknowledged the reception of my letter sent ~~to him~~ ~~through~~ by them to him. But how is it that my Brother never answered it - he who was so anxious to write to me?

That Correspondent of theirs, whose ~~is~~ name I if I recollect rightly, is Schles-wick, ~~was~~, having received that letter, <sup>was</sup> to forward ~~that letter~~ <sup>it</sup> to Herr Negotiant Hancygade in Tilsitz, from whom my brother was to receive it in the last instance.

It was an embarrassing question

Paris, 25 rue de Valenciennes

My dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. in relation to the business of the Bank of France. I am very glad to hear that you are so well and hope that you will continue to be so for many years to come. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. B. de la Roche

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the matter of the late Mr. [Name] and to be assured that your interest in the same is very much gratifying. I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been referred to the proper authorities for their consideration and that they will be ready to give you a full and complete answer as soon as they shall have had time to do so. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
 [Name]

Mr. William [Name]
 Burlington Arcade London

with me to call on Messrs Leaf, Crofts & Co. for that information in the first two years, as a question of that sort would imply the want of trust in them and in the respectability of their house which I was not disposed to do. Therefore I allowed four years to ~~relapse~~ and not receiving any answer from my brother <sup>resolved that</sup> ~~and~~ to write to them at last. As you will perceive ~~at~~ I do not even mention the circumstance of the money being given them at the same time, in the letter which I address them now. And you have no necessity of reminding them of it. - The principal point is to know whether their correspondent had acknowledged the letter and what he has done with it. -

I shall feel obliged to you if you will call on them yourself personally

My brother's name is Stanislaus, he inhabited at that time Kaymel, a place distant some thirty miles from Tilsitz, and was personally acquainted with Mr Hanczade a merchant of that town. -

I thank you for ~~the~~ subscribing ~~of~~ to the Publishers' Circular.

I find that it is too late in the day to send you through Januszkiwicz a sum of twenty five francs ~~which~~ ~~was~~ destined for Mr. Olizarowski of London. I am sending him however a draft on you by our dispatch ~~of~~ day and I shall thank you if you will honour it before <sup>you</sup> receive ~~the~~ money for same from Januszkiwicz.

Januszkiwicz has transformed his unfortunate great coat of London construction into a most magnificent tailed coat, and looks quite a mana dandy of first water. Formerly he looked a Clergyman of the most ridiculous stamp -

I want Dombek's receipts for money which you were ~~to~~ trickling out to him, - and which I think is now exhausted.

Remind me to Mr. Field, to Miss Jeffs and brother, and to Madame Jeffs if ~~it~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>her</sup> ~~case~~ <sup>business</sup>.

Mr. William Jeffs
15 Burlington Arcade, London

Yours very truly
Leonard Reed

