

— 21st November 1837 —

640

Edward Lytton Bulwer Esq. 8 Charles Street, Berkeley Square, Sir, Before leaving town Dr. Lardner enjoined me to attend to your directions which you may have to give respecting the prospectus &c. (1) and any thing connected with the printing office. They will find me here (2 St. Queen Street Westminster) every hour in the daytime. I have the honor to be Sir your Servant. L. N. (1) (The National Journal)

but in question no newspapers
now "The Monthly Chronicle"

— 24th November 1837 —

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the proposed alterations in the printing office. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner.

I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner.

I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner.

I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner. I have been very much interested in the subject, and have been very anxious to see that the alterations should be made in the most judicious manner.