

Paris, 25 me du faubourg du Roule
21st February 1840
Friday

Dear Mr. McConnell

You will oblige me by sending me my bill for the coat you have made for me that I may know the amount of what I owe to you. I do not expect to be so soon in London unless something occurs that would require my presence there. And write to me at the same time when do you expect to be paid. If I say for instance at the end of the season would it do for you? as it would be then more convenient to me. ~~than otherwise~~

I see that you have parted with your great coat for my Parisian friend for £3. 10. ... It is a little too big for him.

Please to leave your letter and your bill at Mr Jeff's 15 Burlington Arcade who is a friend of mine and who has means of forwarding letters to Paris free of expense.

Yours truly
Leonard Niedzwiecki
