Madam,

I am unexpectedly detained in town against my will by an urgent business, to which I must attend necessarily, but not to make your son lose one single lesson before Easter, I will leave town on good Friday early in the morning, so as to reach Woolwich by 11 o'clock a.m., when we will have time enough to compensate this Day's lesson.

I hope that this arrangement

Madam,

detained in town again, my visit by an urgent business,
to which I must attend
your box late one single line before I return, I will
as to reach Worcester by
compare this box's
box. I hope that this
