

40
233
36 Norfolk Place, Bryanston Square, London W 21st Sept. 1836

Madam,

As I find that to obtain a new situation a testimonial from my former is required - and as my discharge was effected in a way that prevents me from thinking that I have been justly dealt with; I have no other means of having justice done to me, no other means of redress than respectfully to address to yourself

I am <sup>in</sup> hopes of obtaining a situation in a short <sup>time</sup> - God will be merciful to me - he will not allow me to suffer. I know it I shall have that situation - but it would greatly assist me in my proceedings to have any certificate of my service - which to grant or which to obtain for me is the earnest and respectful request which I take the liberty of addressing you.

It occurs to me that tho' willing to accept the first situation that would present itself to me I would feel insurmountable objections to that of letter-bearer. To be the idiotical carrier of a sentence pronounced upon myself, I could not easily submit. I could not forget that such was the way in which my discharge was effected. - an expedient, upon general grounds, so unjustifiable and without precedent, is the best possible proof that I have not deserved the disgrace. However, as all is over, justice demands that I should not suffer under it at least. You will feel, <sup>in</sup> Madam, and therefore I hope that you will intercede for me or grant me the required testimonial. -

30th August 1826

My dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th inst. in relation to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have been much interested in the subject, and have given it much consideration. I have no objection to the proposed alterations, and I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery.

I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery.

I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery.

I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery. I have no objection to the proposed alterations in the mode of conducting the business of the Court of Chancery.

Jane has wronged me. She detained many articles belonging to me - and for whom? Really I am far from bearing enmity to any body, but I fear to examine myself <sup>feelings</sup> to know how I am disposed towards Jane. Let heaven have mercy upon her. -

Any recommendation on your part to any person in London would be gratefully acknowledged and long remembered.

My present situation is the only apology for addressing yourself which I can offer you - and I hope that you will excuse me -

I ~~am~~ have the honour to be Madam,

respectfully
your most obedient humble
servant

Philip Tarasiewicz
Non. commissioned officer of the late polish army

Mrs. Hurnall,
Isle of Wight

20th March 1846

I am very sorry to hear that you are unwell. I hope you will be able to get on your feet soon. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the country. I have not yet received your letter of the 15th. I shall be glad to hear from you again. I am
 ever, dear Sir,
 your obedient servant,
 Wm. B.