My dear Mr. Budweick

I forgot - that we are engaged to-morrow evening - being invited to a religious evening - by the French Protestant Pastors - I shall be glad therefore to see you to-morrow in the afternoon - I would when I can receive

The money my husband
has left in your hands, as my funds are exhausted Will that Annie must be ~~very~~ fetch Charlie for his holidays?

With much regards -

Believe me

yours Truly

My dear W. Bidweestey.
Pray excuse me for delaying so long to write and thank you for so kindly sending me
the 400. francs. for my journey. Y^r letter arrived one hour after the train had departed for Paris, therefore we had to go that night to Bala - & from there via Belfast to Paris, which we reached at 4. a. m. on Monday morning. we started by the 7. 1/2. m. train to Boulogne - and reached London Bridge at 11. a. m. on Tuesday morning. Our passage by sea - was very bad - a perfect storm - & we had 8 hours of it. however none of us were sick

so it did not matter.
I am so sorry I was not ighs able to see you in Paris ia to thank you personally - for y- great kindness -

I found my husband looking remarkably well.

My husband & children join me - in kindest

remembrances - to you and the family -

Believe me,

yours very sincerely

W. G. L. G.

I believe my husband is writing to you to day about the money

My dear friends.

In a conversation this morning with my husband, I learnt, for the first time, that I was indebted to you - for a great kindness in advancing me, at a time when I was in great trouble - the sum of 200. £. I thought I could discharge this obligation to Mr. Redwood's - and I also thought the money had been repaid, but since I find this is not the case. I have been at once to offer you my sincerest thanks, and to assure you that I shall ever be most grateful to you and also to Mr. Buchsby - It would have taken so long a time, had I written from Berne to Lincoln, therefore I ventured to express on the kindness of

id. My friends = I was much is dis-appointed not to see you on my way through Paris. He arrived at 4 a.m.
 & started at 7.30 a.m. so it was impossible. I now enclose you 250 frs & shall feel obliged if you will kindly hand over 50 frs to Mr. Pichetsky =
 If I understand my husband rightly = I think he said Mr. Pichetsky has already received from him

150^{fr} so that the 250 - I now sent, will make up the whole 400^{fr} which I received at Berne. - If I have made any mistake W. Neuchâtel will perhaps be kind enough to write to me. I hope dear Pamela you are enjoying better health.
Pray remember us most kindey, to y^r charming son, and with every affectionate regard to y^r self.
Believe me,

Yours ever Sincerely
M. Leubgenstein
