The Electric and International Telegraph Company.

INCORPORATED 1846.)

HOUSE OF COMMONS FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27th.

| H. M.  HOUSE MADE. Private business. Deal Improvement Bill—Second Reading. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against Negatived without a Division. Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. M. Maguire ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Mr. Maguire ditto.  |         | HOUSE OF COMMONS, FRI              | DA  | Y,    | FEBRUARY 27th, 1863.   |
|--|---------|------------------------------------|---|-------|--|
| HOUSE MADE. Private business. Deal Improvement Bill—Second Reading. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against Negatived without a Division. Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. So Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Dord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported proporess  | TIME.   |                                    | TI  | ME.   | The state of the s |
| Private business. Deal Improvement Bill—Second Reading. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against. Negatived without a Division. Questions. Questions. Questions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Exchequer against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Exchequer against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Exchequer against. Ghaneellor of Exchequer against. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Exchequer against. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Guestions. Ghaneellor of Excheque against. Guestions. Ghaneellor of | H. M.   |                                    | H   | . м.  |  |
| Deal Improvement Bill—Second Reading.  Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against Negatived without a Division.  Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved.  Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. 30 Still speaking.  Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. Millnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemed the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn.  30 Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported prozoress  | * ()    |                                    |   |       |  |
| Reading. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against Negatived without a Division. Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved, Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Mines ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemed the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. CITY, Four o'Clock. CONSOLS CLOSED Money 92g to 92½ Account 92g to 92½   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen against. Negatived without a Division.  Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. So Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. Milnes ditto. I Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Magnire ditto. Mr. Magnire ditto. Mr. Hagnire ditto. Mr. Magnire ditto. Mr. Hagnire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. LordW. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Negatived without a Division.  Petitions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxtou for. Mr. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Dispared the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    | 111   | 0     |  |
| Questions. Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Regiffith ditto. Mr. Regiffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. U. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. Hebelieved that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Uord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Regarted progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Questions. Breach of Privilege. Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved.  Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. Milles ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. Ho believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirons of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an am- nesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Oldo Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  | 1 30    | Petitions                          |   |       | The second section of  |
| Breach of Privilege, Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be exensed from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved.  Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking.  Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Hasquire d | A OU    |                                    | The same same   |       |  |
| Mr. Reed attended at Bar of the House, & made satisfactory apology. Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved.  Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking.  Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. LORDS ADJOURNED.  CITY, Four o'Clock.  CONSOLS CLOSED  Money 92 to 92 degrated procedu |         |                                    | AGENCATES BAN   |       |  |
| House, & made satisfactory apology.  Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to.  Supply—Committee moved.  Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking.  Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. M. Milnes ditto.  Lord Fermoy ditto.  Sir M. Farquhar ditto.  Mr. Stansfeld ditto.  Sir M. Farquhar ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  CORDS ADJOURNED.  LORDS ADJOURNED.  LORDS ADJOURNED.  CITY, Four o'Clock.  CONSOLS CLOSED  Money 92\frac{3}{2} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Account 92\frac{3}{2} to 92\frac{1}{2}  A |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Sir F. Smith moved, Mr. Reed be excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| excused from further attendance. Agreed to. Sapply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland. 30 Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stransfeld ditto. Mr. Stransfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. H. Seymour  |         |                                    | erranenta .   |       |  |
| Agreed to. Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Disraeli dito. Mr. Disraeli dito. Mr. Disraeli dito. Mr. Disraeli dito. |         |                                    | Existencia  |       |  |
| Supply—Committee moved. Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  Still speaking. Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. Milnes ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  At D. LORDS ADJOURNED.  LORDS ADJOURNED.  CITY, Four O'CLOCK. CONSOLS CLOSED Money 92 § to 92 ½ Account 92 § to 92 ½  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Mr. Hennessy moving Address on the subject of Poland.  30 Still speaking.  Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Mines ditto. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. O30 Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported process  | galley. |                                    |   |       |  |
| the subject of Poland.  Still speaking.  Ditto.  Mr. Newdegate against.  Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. M. Milnes ditto.  Lord Fermoy ditto.  Mr. FitzGerald ditto.  Sir H. Verney ditto.  Sir H. Verney ditto.  Mr. Griffith ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Haseymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  CITY, Four o'Clock.  CONSOLS CLOSED  Money 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Account 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Money 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Money 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  CITY, Four o'Clock.  CONSOLS CLOSED  Money 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Account 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Account 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Account 92\frac{3}{8} to 92\frac{1}{2}  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditt | 5 0     |                                    |   | ,     |  |
| Ditto.  Mr. Newdegate against.  Mr. Buxton for.  Mr. M. Milnes ditto.  Lord Fermoy ditto.  Mr. FitzGerald ditto.  Mr. Stansfeld ditto.  Sir H. Verney ditto.  Sir H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Maguire ditto.  Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   | . 1     | the subject of Poland.             |   |       |  |
| Ditto. Mr. Newdegate against. Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. D. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour dito. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    | determine   |       |  |
| Mr. Buxton for. Mr. M. Milnes ditto. D. Lord Fermoy ditto. Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Magnire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported procress   | 5 0     | Ditto.                             |   |       |  |
| Mr. M. Milnes ditto.  Out Fermoy ditto.  Mr. FitzGerald ditto.  Mr. Stansfeld ditto.  Sir H. Verney ditto.  Sir H. Verney ditto.  Sir M. Farquhar ditto.  Mr. H. Seymour ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported procress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Lord Fermoy ditto.  Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   | 2 20    |                                    | SE CONTRACTO  |       |  |
| Mr. FitzGerald ditto. Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    | and and   |       |  |
| Mr. Stansfeld ditto. Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported procress   | 1 0     | Lord Fermoy ditto.                 | NCHO CONTROL OF   |       |  |
| Sir H. Verney ditto. Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Of Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Sir M. Farquhar ditto. Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  | 5 0     |                                    |   |       |  |
| Mr. Griffith ditto. Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   | 3 30    |                                    | Name of Street, or other Persons and Street, |       |  |
| Mr. H. Seymour ditto. Mr Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Mr. Maguire ditto. Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government. He recommended withdrawal of motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         | Mr. H Soymour ditto                | N. S.   |       |  |
| Lord Palmerston strongly condemned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   | 9 30    |                                    |   |       |  |
| demned the policy of Russia. He believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   | 100     |                                    |   |       |  |
| believed that the Emperor of Russia was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| was sincerely desirous of alleviating the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution.  He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| the state of Poland, and he trusted that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution.  He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| that he would consult his interests and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| and a true policy, by offering an amnesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| nesty, and granting a constitution. He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   | -       |                                    |   |       |  |
| He deprecated the resolutions as likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress   | 1 30    |                                    | 6   | 40    | LORDS ADJOURNED.   |
| likely to fetter the action of the Government.  He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| He recommended withdrawal of motion.  Mr. Disraeli ditto.  Withdrawn.  Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied.  Discussion ended.  Went into Committee.  Reported progress  |         | likely to fetter the action of the |   |       |  |
| motion. Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Mr. Disraeli ditto. Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   | 31    |  |
| Withdrawn. Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Lord W. Graham calling attention to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands.  Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| to Increased Expenditure for Ionian Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       | CITY, FOUR O'CLOCK.  |
| Islands. Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress  | 1030    |                                    |   |       |  |
| Sir G. Lewis replied. Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    |   | -4.22 | Money $92\frac{3}{8}$ to $92\frac{1}{2}$   |
| Discussion ended. Went into Committee. Reported progress   |         |                                    |   |       | ACCOUNT 923 to 921   |
| Reported progress  |         |                                    |   |       |  |
| Reported progress.   | 100     |                                    |   |       |  |
|  |         | Reported progress.                 |   |       | C. V. BOYS, SUPT   |

